

Featured Speakers

Dan and Jen Leman

Dan and Jen Leman have been married for 16 years and have three wonderful daughters. They met in high school, married in college, and still love hanging out together. Jen studied Family and Consumer Sciences at Iowa State. She is passionate about education, dogs, and making disciples. Formerly, Dan was chemical engineer, but in 2010 he became pastor of Faith Evangelical Free Church in Metamora, Illinois.

Scott and Sandy Peasley

Scott and Sandy have been married for over 20 years. Scott is a Special Agent for Iowa DPS with 14 years in Narcotics Enforcement and 8 years in the Division of Criminal Investigation. He also coaches high school baseball. Sandy is a braille interpreter for the Boone School District. Together, have been long-time members and leaders at the Boone Evangelical Free Church. They have two children; a son in college and a daughter in her senior year of high school. They come to share a message of hope and encouragement through their own personal marital struggles.

CORNERSTONE MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT SEMINAR

Six Hours
for Us

Saturday,
February 10, 2018

Cornerstone Church
Marion, IA

Saturday, February 10
9:30 AM to 3:30 PM
Door open at 9:00 AM

Cost: $35 per couple.
 Price includes continental breakfast, snacks, lunch and seminar materials.

If you need help with childcare, Cornerstone is willing to reimburse up to $50 per couple. (Submit a request after the event with the name of your childcare provider.)

This event is open to anyone who is married or preparing for marriage regardless of faith or background. Our speakers will discuss the various trials and turning points in their marriages. One couple has three children still at home; another couple are near empty-nesters who have also navigated marriage through 20+ years in law enforcement.

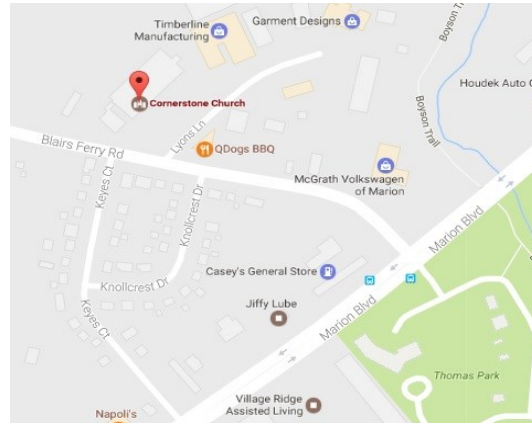

A registration link is available online at www.cornerstone-marion.org. You can also sign up by calling the church or mailing the attached registration form.
