Fall Ministry Launch

Small Group Communities: The Christian life is meant to be lived in relationships of encouragement and accountability. Our small group opportunities are launchpads for spiritual growth. We have groups that meet on week nights, early mornings, and mid-day. Please contact pastormatt@cornerstone-marion.org to find the best group for you. A variety of groups are available for single men or women, couples, and groups where entire families participate.

The Gospel Project for Adult Sunday School: Each Sunday at 11AM in Room 101, all adults, longtime attenders and first time guests, are invited to walk through portions of the New Testament in a Sunday School class format. No preparation is required. Come to listen, learn, and engage around the Bible with college students, folks in midlife, and senior saints.

Blessed to Bless for Adult Sunday School: Each Sunday at 11AM in Room 110 for adults looking for something more involved in a Sunday School format. Class participants will form a prayer list of unchurched family, neighbors and friends God has placed around them. We will study God's Word and encourage one another to take natural steps of relationship with the goal to share the Good News. Class will run through November 25.

Sunday School: Pre-K through 5th grade meets together in Room 107 (the Children's Church room) for the first 15 minutes for a Bible lesson, then they break into classes (Pre-K - K, 1-3rd, 4-5th) to have small group discussion and activities. Currently children through adults are using Lifeway's The Gospel Project curriculum, as we have for the past 4 years. This fall we'll be diving into the life of Paul and finishing up with the book of Revelation. The Gospel Project takes learners through the books of the Bible chronologically and focuses on the Gospel proclamation as it is found in that part of the Bible. Christ comes out of every lesson! Sunday school is open to all. See Randy Pospisil if you have questions, would like to volunteer, or have children that want to be involved.
